

Digital StoryLab

KATE LIBBY
COACHING

Blog Writing & Media Creation Class

Class Overview

Digital StoryLab is a creative, skill-building media workshop where participants explore blogging, digital storytelling, and online publishing. The class emphasizes expressive communication, technical fluency, and project-based learning, guided by experienced facilitators in a supportive, community-based environment.

Participants work on independent projects through personalized 1:1 instruction, with the option to engage in collaborative learning through a guided peer lab.

Registration

To start the application process, schedule an inquiry call.

✉ classes@katelibbycoaching.com

🌐 katelibbycoaching.com/classes

Individual + Group
Tracks Available!

1:1 Media Sessions

Participants receive individualized instruction tailored to their digital writing goals.

- 14 weekly sessions (1–2 hours each)
- Scheduled 1:1 instruction with a creative media educator
- Emphasizes project planning, writing skills, publishing tools, and content creation
- Tuition: $200/hour (billed hourly; total based on session length)

Collaborative Lab Track (Optional)

Participants may join a facilitated lab space to share work, receive peer feedback, and build community.

- 10–14 weekly lab sessions (1.5 hours each)
- Project-based prompts and instructor-led creative activities
- Fosters confidence, social communication, and digital collaboration
- Tuition: $100/hour (billed hourly)

 Final scheduling will be coordinated with enrolled participants. Sessions are held in-person or virtually based on each week's focus area.

Repeat Enrollment: Digital StoryLab runs in trimester sessions. Participants may re-enroll to build on prior work, pursue new projects, or continue developing digital media skills with fresh prompts and feedback each term.