PARENT COACHING

Designed to be accessible. Open to all.

Parenting an adult child means constantly adapting — especially when one or more family members is neurodivergent. Kate Libby Coaching offers parent coaching sessions to help you:

- Communicate effectively with your child
- Support their goals toward independence
- Stay connected as a family team

Sessions may also include referrals to support services for your child, other family members, or your family as a whole.

Rate: $275 / 1-hr session
